January in Review

Our new year started off with a Winter Tea Party. We made a new spice tea with pomegranate and apple cider. It tasted good and warmed us up!

Our Garden Club has spring fever. We planted crocus bulbs and are looking forward to seeing them bloom.

Our Women's Club was exciting this month. The women reminisced about thimbles they once used when sewing. We even had a collection of antique ceramic state thimbles to view.

Our Men's Club was also busy. They reminisced about ties and cuff links. There were a lot of ties to look at. At the end the men voted on which tie they liked the best.

The Cooking Club was busy baking cookies and dipping pretzels for our Snow fest.

We ended our month with a Snow Fest Party. While our men were putting together the arch for our party, the women were busy making a winter scene of penguins and snow forts from styrofoam peanuts. They also made a 4 ½ foot stuffed snowman. We had snowmen everywhere! Our entertainment was provided by Bob Buxbaum. We always have a good time when Bob comes and entertains us. The residents had a lot of fun and the Snow fest helped to chase away the winter blahs.
